

Audit Period Schedule 2015

The AAMA (CAB) audit requirement is based on the type of publication and the frequency of publication. All Community Newspapers and Community Language Newspapers must audit each 6-month audit period.

Business and Professional Publications or Specialty Publications or Community Language Publications that publish 13 issues or more per year must audit every 6 months. Business and Professional Publications or Specialty Publications or Community Language Publications that publish 12 issues or less per year can audit a 12-month period – either April to March or October to September following by a Publisher's Statement.

The following are the defined audit periods, lodgement and data release dates for 2015.

Please Note: If your title is audited by the Media Audit Division (MAD), please send copies of the necessary paperwork to auditor@auditedmedia.org.au and eLodgement submission within your eLodgement Manager.

6-month audit periods

1 October 2014 to 31 March 2015

Deadline to send records & eLodgement for MAD audited publications: Thursday 16 April 2015
Deadline eLodgement Date (other than MAD audited publications): Thursday 30 April 2015
eData Release: Friday 22 May 2015

1 April 2015 to 30 September 2015

Deadline to send records and eLodgement for MAD audited publications: Thursday 15 October 2015
Deadline eLodgement Date (other than MAD audited publications): Friday 30 October 2015
eData Release: Friday 20 November 2015

12-month audit periods

1 April 2014 to 31 March 2015

Deadline to send records & eLodgement for MAD audited publications: Thursday April 16, 2015
Deadline eLodgement Date (other than MAD audited publications): Thursday 30 April 2015
eData Release: Friday 22 May 2015

1 October 2014 to 30 September 2015

Deadline to send records and eLodgement for MAD audited publications: Thursday 15 October 2015
Deadline eLodgement Date (other than MAD audited publications): Friday 30 October 2015
eData Release: Friday 20 November 2015